Location of the base in Cienfuegos:

Due to the specific conditions in Cuba we kindly ask you to give special attention to the following:

- In Cuba, it is often difficult to acquire provisions or other articles of daily use. We strongly recommend sending us a filled-out provisioning list at least two weeks prior to charter begin. The quantities ordered should be sufficient for the entire charter period, since usually there is little or no possibility for replenishment under way.
- Transfers (e.g., from the air- port or hotel to and from the base) should be booked well in advance (we recommend two weeks prior to charter begin), to secure the availability of the transport means. For hotel reservations we need the passport data of the travelers in advance.

- The Cuban authorities charge for a sailing permission (sometimes called "tourist tax"), amounting to €12 per person/day, children under 12 years 50%, under 2 years free. This charge must be paid in cash and in euros at the base prior to check-in.

Our base manager will be glad to assist you with the planning of your route.
